OURSELVES.

The annual Meeting of the State Association will be held on 27th June 1953 at 3. p.m. at the State Headquarters "Wenlock Park", South Beach Road, Madras under the presidency of our Chief Commissioner the Hon'ble Sri K. Venkataswami Naidu, in the absence of Dr. Rm. Alagappa Chettiar, our President who will be leaving for United Kingdom on that day from Bombay in connection with commonwealth Universities Conference

The Annual meeting will provide an opportunity for workers to meet and exchange views on various matters connected with the advancement of our movement in the State. It is hoped that the occasion will give a further impetus in the matter of strengthening our Organisation. Mr. C. M. Malliah, Asst. District Commissioner, Kelamangalam, Hosur Taluk has presented a portrait of late Mr. K. A. Nachiappa Gownder former State Commissioner to the State Association. This portrait will be unveiled by Sri K. Venkataswami Naidu on that day at the Jamboree Hall. Our report reveals a strength of 53,000 Scouts and Guides of all ranks in the State. Even now renewals for 1952-53 are coming in, this is the reason why the August, limit for renewals was suggested. It will be easy if the correct procedure is followed in relation to groups, with Districts or Local Associations and in relation to Districts with State and State to National Headquarters. Often this is not the case and hence certain amount of delay becomes inevitable. It could be possible with the co-operation of all to avoid this and fulfil the obligations satisfactorily with in the quickest possible time. We are sure that the coming year will see greater progress.

Andhra State Association :

Now that the question of Andhra State is settled, we are asked whether an Andhra State Association of Bharat Scouts and Guides will immediately be formed. The matter has been considered already by the State Executive Committee and as per rules of the Association (A. P. R. O.) the moment civil administration changes, the National Headquarters will be informed to permit the formation of the Andhra State Association and the manner in which this should be done. The Committee will take all steps necessary to see that a very harmonious and satisfactory arrangement is made in this matter.

Our New Treasurer

We extend a hearty welcome to our new State Treasurer Sri Sathrasala Venkata Ram, F.C.I.F.Com.Sc.A., in the place of Mr. V.E.S. Gupta who has resigned. We are thankful to Mr. Gupta for his useful service to the Movement. Mr. Sathrasala Venkata Ram, District Commissioner of the Corporation Association brings with him, his varied experience, of work among the youths, and is a valuable acquisition to the State Association.

Good Character Needed for Successful Life.

Scout Movement's Aid Explained.

Mr. K. Venkataswami Naidu, Minister for Religious Endowments and State Chief Commissioner, Bharat Scouts and Guides, Madras State said here today that the "non official character of the Scouting movement should be maintained and it should not be used for political purposes." He added that the movement should devote itself entirely to social service.

Mr. Venkataswami Naidu who was speaking at a reception given by the Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State, at the Scout Headquarters said that Scouting was essentially a youth movement directed to shape the character of young men and women. The movement encouraged open air life which the present system of education lacked.

Proceeding, Mr. Naidu said that Scouting emphasised the importance of Religion which was very essential in the present set up of the country. The Scouting laws, he said, embodied the essence of all religions.

He congratulated the promoters of the movement in Mysore in enlisting 50,000 members to the movement. The new merger had brought all organisations together and Scouting was beginning a new chapter in its history. He said that more help and patronage was necessary both from the public and the Government. He thanked for the reception accorded to him.

Mr. J. B. Mallaradhya, Director of Public Instruction and Chief Scout Commissioner in Mysore, welcoming the distinguished guest said, "he is associated with all movements calculated to promote social welfare for the past 30 years." He recalled that Mr. Naidu was associated with Scouting for the 25 years and had rendered valuable service for the promotion of Scouting.

Referring to the progress of Scouting in Mysore, he said that Scouting and Guiding must take concrete form and said that the Government had examined this question in connection with proposed reforms in the scheme of education. He favoured "deofficialising" the movement. In Mysore, he said, there were 50,000 Scouts and Girl Guides and hoped that the movement would receive help and patronage from the public and the Government.

The guests were served with refreshments. Among those present were Mr. Justice B. Vasudeva Murthy and Mrs. Vasudeva Murthy Mr. P. Hanumanthaiah, Mayor, Mr. Henjerappa, Commissioner, Bangalore Corporation, Mr. M. V. Veerappa, Dr. P. Krishna Rao, Mr. B. V. Lakappa Mr. V. K. Govindarajulu, Mr. Sub and others.

The Bharat Scouts & Guides, Madras State

Scout and Guide Commissioners' Training Course, Stanley Park
Training Centre, Coonoor, 4-5-1953 to 10-5-53.

The Course

The State Association of Madras took steps to organise a Training Course for Commissioners' of both sections in order to provide adequate training as prescribed in "Scheme of Training" issued by the National Headquarters, Bharat Scouts & Guides, for the present and prospective Commissioners as well as the Secretaries and Officers of the District and Local Associations.

Accordingly, the camp was fixed to be held at our Training Centre from the 4th to 10th May, 1953. We are grateful for the ready response of our Commissioners. The course was attended by 26 men and 12 women representing 17 districts in our State. Miss G. R. Samuel, Headquarters Commissioner for Training (Guides) was in charge of the women section and Mr. J. I. Muthiah D. C. C., in charge of men assisted by Sri K. Renuka Prasad, A.D.C.C. Sri V. S. Ratnasabhpathy, D.C.C. the State Secretary stayed on throughout the courses and helped in the general arrangements in addition to taking up special joint sessions. Mr. V. P. Ramaswami, the energetic Secretary of the District Association, Nilgiris, worked as the Quartermaster with the assistance of a batch of Rovers.

Inauguration

The Course commenced on the 4th May at 6 P.M. when Sri V. S. Ratnasabhpathy, the State Secretary inaugurated it and said that the Commissioners were the Chief Executives in the District and this was the first time in the history of the Bharat Scouts and Guides that both the Men and Women Commissioners had come together for a joint course of Training. They were the main stay of the movement and should offer trained and efficient leadership so that their example might be followed by the young people who were in their charge. Miss G. R. Samuel, talked about the need for rethinking and reorientating our aims and methods to suit the present day needs. More practical methods in the Schools and Citizenship training made this necessary. There was also the need to emphasise the International aspect of Scouting and Guiding. Mr. Muthiah, Deputy Camp Chief, detailed the nature of the work done in such courses and emphasised the need for more sincere and conscious work among the ranks and file.

Daily Routine.

The syllabus of the course was based on the subjects outlined in "Scheme of Training" in addition to Knotting and Signalling specially included for the purpose of imparting practical knowledge of Scout and Guide Craft. On Thursday the 7th, a demonstration of typical Weekly parade was given by the Scout Troop of The Brecks School for the benefit of the Campers. It was observed by them noting down good and bad points with a view to help them to carry out their own inspections in the Districts. Two evenings were devoted to men for practising different types of games and one evening for the practical demonstration of the Ceremonials. Saturday the 9th May was allotted for an excursion to the Pykara Works and Glenmorgan. The Pasture Institute, the Nutrition Research Laboratory and to the Sims Park at Coonoor. The women Commissioners had activity games and Bulbul singing games, in the evenings. Each Commissioner felt that she would like some new game or idea or song to take with her while visiting companies in addition to the scheme of training of the course. The guide Law and Promise, the Bulbul Law and Promise were translated into Tamil so that uniformity would be secured all over the State.

Camp Fires that were held every night except on the 9th were taken full advantage of by the members of the course to give expression to their Talents of music histrionic, art, dancing wit and humour. It is rather difficult to give details of the various items done, but if we want to single out one or two, we should make mention of the (Coonoor) Kuravanchi dance by the women and the folk song called "Villu Pattu" by the men campers, It is no exaggeration when we say that all the campers men and women, completely gave up their reservedness and co-operated with one another, thus contributing a great deal to the joy and success of the entire course. We must also make a special note of the remarkable spirit of comradeship and happy family spirit that pervaded the camp throughout.

Visiting Commissioner.

On Friday, the 8th May Mr. V. S. Hejmadi, State Commissioner and Sri V. C. Subbaiah Gownder, Assistant State Commissioner for Scouts, paid a visit and they both addressed the campers on their future work. Mr. Hejmadi also presided over the Camp Fire and in the course of his Yarn emphasised the necessity for enlisting more workers for the movement.

His Excellency the Governor's Visit.

His Excellency the Governor of Madras Sri Sri Prakasa accompanied by his brother the Hon'ble Mr. Chandra Bhal the Chairman of the U.P. Legislative Council, paid a visit to our Camp on the morning of 10th May 1953. The Governor spent about two and half hours at our Camp enquiring into every detail and thoroughly at home, with the Camp. He addressed the Campers on the greatness of the movement and asked them to play their part in the building up of the Organisation for establishing peace in the World.

Thanks.

Our thanks are due to Sri N. R. Bojarajulu Naidu, District Commissioner (Scouts) Nilgiris, Mr. H. C. M. MacLaughlin, President of the District Association, Nilgiris, and Miss M. Hensman, District Commissioner, Guides, Nilgiris. We also thank the Municipal Commissioner and others for their help. In conclusion, the success of the course has encouraged us to go forward and it is contemplated to organise similar courses in the state at different centres in future.

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY BHARAT SCOUTS AND GUIDES, MADRAS.

Preliminary Flock Leaders Training Course. Ennore
(11th May to 17th May 1953)

A Flock Leaders Training Course was conducted at Railway Bungatow Ennore. The arrangements were well planned out by Mr. M. J. Veeragavalu, Honorary Joint Secretary, Southern Railway Bharat Scouts and Guides Madras and Mr. Masilamoney, the Asst. Rover Scouts Leader, Nethaji Rover Crew Perambur, acted as Quartermaster and supplied us tasty food from time to time.

Composition of the Course : 17 Campers were present. The Campers were from Golden Rock, Trichy, Erode, Bitrangunta, Miraj, Arakonam, Pattabiram, and Madras. They were divided into 3 Sixes. Miss L. Vedanayakam District Commissioner of Guides West Madras was in charge. She was assisted by Mrs. B. Julian a capable and clever District Flock Leader of the Railway Schools.

Syllabus : More attention was given to practical work than theoretical talks. Many singing games as well as test games were played, besides First Aid and bandages knots and flag erecting. The Campers made hand work at their leisure time.

One evening was arranged for the visitors. Every night after dinner camp fire was arranged by each six in turn. At every camp fire the campers demonstrated a high standard of humorous stunts and fun. The most enjoyable day was the Excursion day. We had a Sail in the boat from one bank to the opposite bank where tea was prepared.

Visitors : Inspiring and encouraging words were uttered by Sri Chowdry, Personnel Officer, Southern Railway on the 1st day of the camp when he welcomed the campers. Mr. George B. Ambrose, Asst. District Commissioner also spoke on benefits of having such camps.

Mr. Aruldoss, Joint Secretary of the Southern Railway Bharat Scouts and Guides was also present on the last day of the camp.

Thanks : I thank heartily the Railway Association for giving me the opportunity to run the flock leaders training for the Railway Schools. I also thank the Joint Secretaries and brother Rovers for all the help they rendered during the camp.

G.L. No. A 52/53-54.

Dated Allahabad, the 28th May, 1953.

Subject :—Bharat Scouts & Guides Mela (Jamboree) 1953,
The State Secretaries,
Bharat Scouts and Guides, India.

Dear worthy Colleague,

It gives me great pleasure to make this announcement that in pursuance with the decision of the Interim-Council "A Bharat Scout & Guide Mela (Jamboree)" on all India level will be held during the last week of December 1953.

Place. With a view to giving facilities to the maximum number of Scouts and Guides to join the Mela (Jamboree) it is desirable to have the assembly at some central place. Keeping this end in the forefront possibilities of mobilization at Hyderabad-Dn are being explored. With the manpower, earnestness of purpose and solidarity which our Hyderabad friends have at their command at present our hopes to muster strong there will not go in vain.

Dates.—Arrival and opening on Friday the 25th and closing and departure on Wednesday, the 30th December 1953.

Jamboree Fee.—Rs. 5 per head. The participants will meet all expenses of all description from their own funds.

Participants.—Scouts and Guides, who will have reached their thirteenth birthday and will not be over seventeen years of age on the opening day of the Mela will be eligible for admission; and in addition to them the proportion of Scouters and Guiders will not be more than 1 to 9, that is one Scouter or Guider for every nine scouts or guides.

Numbers.—The maximum number possible is 5,000. If more applications are received the size of the large State contingents will be reduced proportionately according to the contingency.

Programme.—The programme of activities will be made known well ahead of the Mela after consultation between the National Headquarters and the participating States. But there will be no competitions.—Standards in some of the subjects of scoutcraft will be laid down and the scout and guide units will try to attain them under the eye of specialists.

I shall feel obliged if you will kindly broadcast this news all over your State and exhort Scouts and Guides, Scouters and Guiders, to lay by something from now so that when the proper moment comes they might not find themselves faced with financial stringency.

Yours sincerely,
S. R. BAJPAI,
National Camp Chief
National Organising Commissioner.

G.L. No. A/56/53-54.

Dated Allahabad, 28 h May 1953.

Subject — The Kumbh Mela, Allahabad, 1954.

The State Secretaries,
Bharat Scouts and Guides, India.

Dear Friend,

I trust you know that in the past our Scouts and Guides rendered admirable service to the vast concourse of pilgrims on the occasion of Kumbh Melas at Hardwar, Allahabad, Ujjain and Nasik. Allahabad will witness the next Kumbh Mela early in 1954 and our Scouts and Guides are expected to give a good account of themselves once again on that occasion.

2. Place.—The Kumbh Mela in Allahabad covers a jolly large area say within a radius of 8 miles from the Sangam—the confluence of the Ganges and the Jamuna. The Scouts and Guides will therefore be encamped in the Central Camp at the Sangam and sub-camps at Prayag, Allahabad Junction, Allahabad City, Naini, Jhusi, Phaphamau and Prayag Ghat-cum-Izet Bridge.

3. Participants.—Senior Scouts who will have reached their 16th birthday and Rover Scouts and Rangers up to the age of 25 will be eligible for enlistment. There will be no restriction on the enrolment of Rover and Ranger Leaders nor on their numbers, Physical fitness will of course be the criteria.

4. Numbers.—Arrangements to accommodate 2,000 Senior Scouts, Rover Scouts and Rangers and their Leaders will exist.

5. Finances.—A camp fee of Rs. 3 per head will be charged. The campers will meet all expenses from their respective resources.

6. Dates.—The campers will arrive in Allahabad on Sunday the 31st January and leave on Tuesday, 9th February 1954.

7. Duties.—There will be a large variety of duties, Members will be detailed to such duties as will fit their respective desents.

8. May I request that you will kindly make this proposal known as widely as possible all over your State and appeal to the Senior Scouts, Rover Scouts and Rangers and their Leaders to join the service campaign in large numbers and to save money to that end from now,

Yours sincerely,

S. R. BAJPAI,

National Camp Chief

National Organising Commissioner.

Nilgiris

Mr. D. S. Raja Rao, Member of the National Council Bharat Scouts & Guides addressed a meeting of the High School Students, and Teachers at Ketti. Mr. N. R. Bhojarajulu Naidu, District Commissioner, presided.

Mr. V. P. Ramaswamy, Secretary of the District Council, welcomed Mr. Raja Rao. Mr. Raja Rao in his address emphasised the need for Rural work and that Scouts and Guides do not recognise boundaries and narrow limitations as in politics.

Mr. Solomon, the Headmaster in charge proposed a vote of thanks.

Tanjore

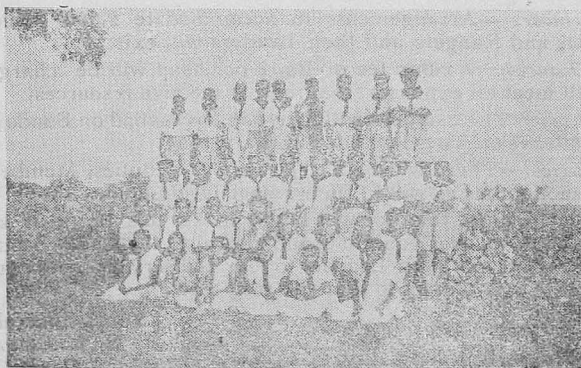

A Scoutmasters Training Course was run at Narasinganpet, Tanjore District from 7th May to 18th May 1953. Mr. M. Rajagopalan, State Organising Commissioner assisted by Messrs. P. V. Ramakrishnan of Mathurai, S. Narayanaswami of Kumbakonam, A. Swayambu of Tanjore and V. Srinivasachari of Kumbakonam, ran the Course for 28 candidates. Mr. K. S. Seshadry, Assistant State Commissioner inaugurated the camp.

Flock Leaders' Training Camp (Preliminary) Muthugapatti. Nammakal (Salem) (22-5-53 to 25-5-53)

The Flock Leaders' Training Course that was conducted at Shanmugarsolai, Muthugapatti for the benefit of twenty five Campers drawn from Nammakal and its adjoining taluks proved a commendable success, thanks to the fine efforts of Sri K. Varadarajan, Sri P. S. Ranganathan, Sri K. Sayappan, Dr. N. Rajagopalan Sri P. Subbarayan and Srimathi K. C. Kolandai. The Camp site that was located at Shanmugarsolai was ideal with solemn pomp of trees, a sequestered well and a goody bungalow, giving as it were an air of classic sanctity to Camp atmosphere.

Twenty-five campers in all attended the Training Course. They were divided in to five Sixes. Miss M. Lily Josephine B.A., Group Leader (Guides) 'Prathaps' was the Camp Officer ably aided by instructors Srimathi K. C. Kolandai and Sri P. S. Ranganathan.

The Treasure hunt, the demonstration of the Investiture Ceremony, the Visitors' Day on 28th May 1953 when demonstrations were put up with Sri John Willington as the Chief guest of honour and Sri Vaidyanathan as the main speaker, the Camp fire and important sessions dealing with specific subjects occasioned a high order of wit and knowledge from the campers.

The lead of Sri V. S. Ratnasabhapathy, State Secretary in giving a shape to this camp cannot be over-emphasised. The Camp Secretary Sri K. Varadarajan B.A., B.L. with his good administrative experience was of immense help to the Camp.
