RECAPITULATION

0.1 LES ARTICLES

0.1.1 Indefinite Article

Masculine Singular	Feminine Singular	Plural	Meaning
UN	UNE	DES	A / An / some

Masculine nouns take the article «UN».

Example : Un livre - A book; Un mur - A wall.

Feminine nouns take the article «UNE».

Example : Une table - A table; Une clef - A key.

Plural nouns take “DES”

Example : Des livres, des clef, des tables.

Note : These articles are used when a noun is introduced for the first time.

0.1.2 Definite Article

Masc. Singular	Fem. Singular	Before Vowel	Plural	Meaning
LE	LA	L'	LES	The

Masculine nouns take the article «LE».

Example : Le livre - the book, Le mur - the wall.

Feminine Nouns take the article «LA».

Example : La table – the table; La clef - the key.

Nouns beginning with a vowel or “h” mute take “L”

Example : L'enfant, l'école, l'hôtel.

Plural nouns take “LES”

Example : Les livres, les clef, les tables.

Note : These articles are used when a noun already mentioned in a text is referred to.

0.1.3 Partitive Article

Masc. Singular	Fem. Singular	Before Vowel	Plural	Meaning
DU	DE LA	DE L'	DES	Some

Masculine nouns take the article «DU».

Example : DU café – some coffee

Feminine Nouns take the article «DE LA».

Example : De la bière – some beer

Nouns beginning with a vowel or “h” mute take “L”

Example : De l'eau – some water.

Plural nouns take “DES”

Example : Des livres, des cahiers.

Note : These articles are used to express quantity along with a noun.

0.1.4 Contracted Articles

De + le	=Du (masculine)	– Ex : Du professeur (du- de+le=of the)
De + la	=De la (feminine)	– Ex : De la comédienne
De + l'	= De l' (before vowel or ‘h’ mute)	– Ex : De l'étudiant
De +les	= Des (plural)	– Ex : Des étudiants

To specify the things we make use of ‘de’ and (du, de la, de l’, des) articles contractés)

Ex: Le livre de Pierre; La voiture du professeur; etc

Note :

1) Noun + du/de la / de l'/des/ + Noun = Contracted articles

Example : Le livre du garçon – Du = de + le = contracted article

2) Verb + du/de la / de l'/des/ + Noun = Partitive articles

Example : Il boit du vin – Du = Partitive article

0.2 LES ADJECTIFS

0.2.1 Demonstrative Adjectives :

To show the things or the person one makes use of the demonstrative adjectives.

They are

Ce (m)

Cet (m. before the word beginning with a vowel or 'h' mute)

Cette (feminine)

Ces (plural)

Ex : Je voudrais ce ballon, cet arbre, cette voiture, ces livres.

0.2.2 Possessive Adjectives :

	Masculine Singular	Feminine Singular	Plural	Meaning
Je	Mon	Ma	Mes	My
Tu	Ton	Ta	Tes	Your
Il/Elle	Son	Sa	Ses	His/her
Nous	Notre	Notre	Nos	Our
Vous	Votre	Votre	Vos	Your
Ils/Elles	Leur	Leur	Leurs	Their

Note : Unlike in English, the possessive adjectives in French agree in gender and number with the noun which follows, and not with the possessor.

Example : His / Her father – Son père. His / Her mother – Sa mère

0.2.3 Qualifying Adjectives:

Revise the list of adjectives studied in certificate course.

Example : grand / petit / bon / blanc / vert / vieil etc.

0.2.3.1 Place of adjectives

The adjectives which are always placed after the noun are:

The adjectives of colour: Ex: une robe africaine

The adjectives which are often placed after the noun are:

Long adjectives: une histoire intéressante

Adjectives often placed before the noun are:

Beau-bon-grand-petit-jeune-vieux-nouveau-joli

N.B : The meaning of the adjective can be different according to the place and the noun it characterizes

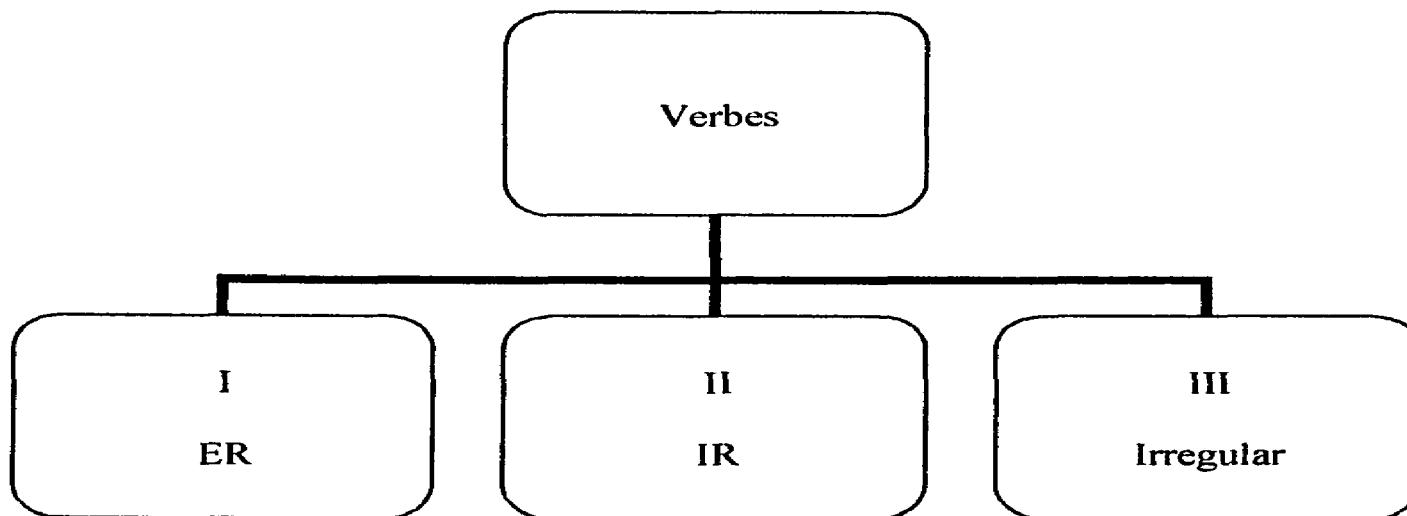

Un petit homme: un homme de petite taille (a short man)

Un petit garçon: un jeune garçon (a young boy)

Un garçon petit: un garçon de petite taille (a short boy)

0.3 LES VERBES

0.3.1 Present Tense :

I Group : All verbs ending in « ER » belong to this group. (Except Aller)
All pronominal verbs like « Se Laver »

Parler – To speak	Se Laver – To have a wash
Je parle	Nous parlons
Tu parles	Vous parlez
Il / Elle parle	Ils / Elles parlent

II Group : Some verbs ending in « IR » belong to this group.
Verbs of colour like “rougir, jaunir, blanchir, verdir etc. belong to this group.

Finir – To finish

Je finis	Nous finissons
Tu finis	Vous finissez
Il / Elle finit	Ils / Elles finissent

III Group : All irregular verbs belong to this group.

Avoir	Être	Aller	Prendre/comprendre
J'ai	Je suis	Je vais	Je prends
Tu as	Tu es	Tu vas	Tu prends
Il / Elle a	Il / Elle est	Il / Elle va	Il / Elle prend
Nous avons	Nous sommes	Nous allons	Nous prenons
Vous avez	Vous êtes	Vous allez	Vous prenez
Ils / Elles ont	Ils / Elles sont	Ils / Elles vont	Ils/Elles prennent

Note : Revise other irregular verbs studied in certificate course.

0.3.2 Imperative :

To give an order or make a request, we make use of the imperative form. To form this mood, we have to take tu, vous, nous form of the present tense and remove tu, vous and nous and retain the verbal form.

Ex: Tu prends	Prends! – (take)
Nous prenons	Prenons! – (let us take)
Vous prenez	Prenez! – (take)

N.B: For the first group verbs we have to remove ‘s’ in ‘tu’ form.

Ex: Tu parles Parle!

Imperative negative

Ne parle pas!

Ne parlons pas!

Ne parlez pas!

0.3.3 Passé Composé

Transitive verbs (verbs that take direct object), use “Avoir” as auxiliary. This tense is formed with the present tense of avoir+ the past participle form of the given verb.

Ex: Regarder

J’ai regardé (regardé - past participle)

Tu as regardé

Il a regardé

Nous avons regardé

Vous avez regardé

Ils ont regardé

Interrogative forms :

Tu as compris? (Have you understood?)

Est-ce que tu as compris? (Have you understood?)

As-tu compris? (Have you understood?)

Negation:

Je n’ai pas compris

The past participles of the I group verbs are formed by removing ‘er’ and adding é

Ex: parler = parlé

For other verbs:

Prendre-pris	comprendre	-compris	Avoir - eu
Voir -vu	savoir	-su	finir - fini
Faire -fait	être	-été
Lire -lu	apprendre	-appris

The Intransitive verbs (verbs that cannot take direct object) take the auxiliary ‘être’ to form the passé composé. To form this tense, we conjugate the verb ‘être’ in the present tense and add the past participle of the given verb.

In this conjugation, an important point to remember is that the past-participle agrees in gender and number with the subject.

Ex: Partir

Je suis parti (If the subject is masculine)

Je suis partie (If the subject is feminine)

Tu es parti / partie

Il est parti

Elle est partie

Nous sommes partis

Nous sommes parties

Vous êtes partis

Vous êtes parties

Ils sont partis

Elles sont parties

Some of the verbs which are conjugated with “être” are given below:

a) arriver	#	partir
descendre	#	monter
venir	#	aller
entrer	#	sortir
naître	#	mourir
tomber	#	rester

b) All the pronominal verbs:

Ex: s'appeler- se lever etc.

0.3.4 Futur Proche

Present tense of « aller » + infinitif of the given verb.

Ex: Parler

Je vais parler

Tu vas parler

Il/Elle va parler

Nous allons parler

Vous allez parler

Ils / Elles vont parler

Finir

Je vais finir

Tu vas finir

Il va finir

Nous allons finir

Vous allez finir

Ils vont finir

Partir

Je vais partir

Tu vas partir

Il va partir

Nous allons partir

Vous allez partir

Ils vont partir

1.1 TRANSLATION

1.1.1 Revelation / Disclosure 1

At the reception

In a provincial town Sylvie Ferrero, a journalist of "Nouvelles de l'Ouest", makes a call to a friend.

Sylvie : Hello is it Jerome?

Jerome: Sylvie! How are you?

Sylvie : Fine... Well, do you know Gilles Daveau well?

Jerome: Daveau? Yes I know him. Why?

Sylvie : I would like to meet him. Can you invite us to your house?

Jerome: Fine. But, no scenes, ok ?

Sylvie : Jerome, you know me...

Few days later in Jerome's and his companion Catherine's house.

Sylvie : Good evening. I hope you love roses?

Catherine : I adore them. They are superb! Thank you.

Sylvie : Can I call you Catherine?

Catherine : We can also be informal know?

Sylvie : Ok.

Lucas: And this is for you!

(To Jerome)

Jerome: Lucas this is not right.

Lucas : Why? Must we be reasonable this evening?

Jerome: Not at all! We will open it and have a drink.

Gilles Daveau arrives.

Jerome: I introduce you...

1.1.2 Revelation / Disclosure 2 A little Secret

After the meal, the guests take coffee.

Sylvie : They say that you travel a lot....

Gilles D : It's true.

Sylvie : Does the General manager often invite you for official visits?

Gilles D : Yes quiet often. With other Heads of the Enterprise.

Sylvie : Do you like it?

Gilles D : Of course. It's mainly useful. We meet people. We present our products.

Sylvie : They say that the General Manager rings you up...?

Gilles D : He asks me for advice and I reply.

Sylvie : They also say that he has proposed you an important post.

Gilles D : Who told you these things?

1.1.3 Revelation / Disclosure 3 Advice

At the "Nouvelles de l'Ouest" office.

Manager : Daveau Future minister. Its ridiculous !

Sylvie : I think he says the truth.

Manager: Do you think that we must make this news public ?

Sylvie: Yes.

Manager: So announce it.

After an hour

Manager: Show me that article!

Manager: Well! It's almost perfect.

Sylvie: I am not very much satisfied with my title...

Manager: Of course, it's good. Leave it as it is! Don't change it!

Sylvie: So what is wrong?

Manager: These 3 words: "Gilles Daveau, an intelligent, competent and attractive man." Delete them!

Sylvie: But that's the truth!

Manager: We run a newspaper with opposite views Sylvie...

Sylvie: You know he has sent me flowers

1.3 Grammar

1.3.1 Object Pronouns

1.3.1.1 List of pronouns :

Subject	direct object	Indirect object
Je	me	me
Tu	te	te
Il	le	lui
Elle	le	lui
Nous	nous	nous
Vous	vous	vous
Ils	les	leur
Elles	les	leur

Il a acheté le livre	—	Il l'a acheté
Il a donné le livre à Mani	—	Il le lui a acheté
Il a donné les livres à Pierre	—	Il les lui a donnés

1.3.1.2. Place of pronouns :

- A. Object pronouns (DO or IO) are placed before the verb or before the auxiliary in passé composé.
 - B. If both direct and indirect object pronouns come in the same sentence, there are two cases:
 - a. If both are different persons , then : IO + DO

Il m'a envoyé le livre – Il me l'a envoyé
IO+DO

Je t'ai envoyé les cadeaux – Je te les ai envoyé.
IO+DO

In the above 2 sentences, direct objects “livre & cadeaux” are replaced by “l’ & les” respectively.

Je ne t'ai envoyé pas les cadeaux – Je ne te les ai envoyé pas.

- b. Both the pronouns (DO & IO) are third persons (singular or plural)
then: DO + IO

Il donne le livre aux étudiants – Il le lui donne.
DO+IO

C. Imperative:

a. In imperative affirmative, the pronouns are placed after the verb and it follows English rule.

Donnez le livre à Victor – Donnez-le-lui

b. In imperative negative, the pronouns are placed before the verb and it follows original rule.

Donnez-le-lui – Ne le lui donnez pas.

1.3.2 Agreement of past participles:

1.3.2.1 With auxiliary “être”:

As studied earlier in your certificate course, past participle conjugated with the auxiliary verb “être” agrees in gender and number with the subject.

Il est parti	Elle est partie	Ils sont partis	Elles sont parties
Il est allé	Elle est allée	Ils sont allés	Elles sont allées

1.3.2.2 With auxiliary « avoir »:

Past participle conjugated with the auxiliary verb “avoir” agrees in gender and number with the direct object if placed before the verb.

Il a mangé la viande. Il l'a mangée.
Il a envoyé les fleurs. Il les a envoyées.

1.3.3 Feminine of adjectives :

Add « e » to the masculine :

Intelligent – intelligente; patient – paciente.

Adjectives ending in « eux » is changed to « euse » :

Courageux – courageuse; généreux – généreuse.

Adjectives ending in “ier” is changed to “ière”:

Fier – fière;

Capricorne	Capricorn	22/12-20/01	Generous, stable, timid.

1.4.2 Cinema

The taste of others or difficulty in communication (A film resume)

Can we love others when they don't share our taste? That is the theme of the film "The taste of others" by Agnes Jaoui.

Castella (Jean-Pierre Bacri) is a Head of an Enterprise. He is a kind man. His company works well. He signs contract with foreign companies, and for which he learns English. His teacher Clara (Anne Alvaro) is an actor. She handles English classes to earn her living.

One evening Castala sees Clara acting in one of Racine's plays. He falls in love with her. He tries to express his love but Clara lives amidst snobbish artists. These intellectuals find Castala ridiculous.

But he is not ashamed of it, perhaps since he is in love. His courage, generosity and kindness make him triumphant.

In this film, there is also the story of Castala's driver and his girl friend. There is also the story of a bar waitress and a former policeman - 2 other stories dealing with the theme of the difficulty in love and communication.

1.4.3 Mettre la table - Laying a table

La fourchette se place à gauche de l'assiette, pointes en bas, le couteau et la cuillère à droite ;

Lorsqu'il y a plusieurs couverts, on les place dans l'ordre de leur utilisation. Si on commence par du potage, la cuillère sera complètement à droite. Si l'on commence par du poisson, le couteau à poisson sera complètement à droite et la fourchette à poisson complètement à gauche.

Le verre à eau se place à gauche, les autres verres de droite à gauche selon leur ordre de l'utilisation. Le pain est à gauche.

The fork is placed on the left hand side of the plate, pointed downwards. The knife and the spoon are placed on the right hand side. When there are several sets, they are placed according to the order of their use. If we begin with the soup, the spoon is on the right hand side. If we begin with the fish, the fish knife is placed on the right while the fish fork is placed on the left. The water glass is placed on the left while the other glasses are arranged from right to left, according to the order of their use.

2.1 Translation

2.1.1 Return to the country 1

It's long time....

At the farm of Charles Payan at Saint-Cyprien, a village in south of France.

Francois : Is it Charles Payan?

Charles : Yes.

Francois : I am Francois Dumas. Do you remember me?

Charles : Francois! Hi What a surprise! It's how long since you have left Saint-Cyrien?

Francois : 20 years.

Charles : So you were in Africa these 20 years?

Francois : Almost 20 years... 18 years.

Few minutes later...

Charles : Well as for me, after your left I discontinued my studies in medical college and I worked in my parent's farm.

Francois : Are you married?

Charles : Since 10 years.

Francois : Do I know her?

Charles : Suzan is English... We have a 5 year old son.

Francois : So you are also a father.

Charles : Father and Mayor...

Francois : You the Mayor of Saint-Cyprien! Since when?

Charles : Since the last elections. Since 3 years.

2.1.2 Return to the country 2

Present and past

Francois visits his childhood village again.

Francois : I find that the village has changed.

Charles : Since 20 years; and it's normal. It has become international. Everyday I hear people speaking English, German and Dutch "Good Morning", "Guten tag"!

Francois : I remember in those days, neighbours often used to get together .

Charles : We still do it at times.

Francois : With the new inhabitants of the village?

Charles : Yes. To meet with one another, there is always a festival, an activity, an outing... We never get bored here.

Francois : Never?

Charles : Yeah, rarely!

2.2 Vocabulary

Un retour – a return; Ca fait longtemps – it's long since; Une ferme – a farm; Se souvenir / se rappeler – to remember; Combien de temps – how long; Quitter – to leave; Depuis quand – since when ?; Il y a / ça fait – ago; Pendant – during / for; Longtemps – long time; Une enfance – childhood; Réunir – to meet; Quelquefois

B. "La Dilettante" (a film directed by Pascal Thomas in 1998) Catherine Frot plays a role of a woman who is independent, kind and always happy. She is married, has 2 children and gets divorced to live a new adventure of love in Swiss. 15 years later, she returns to Paris. Problems wait for her: an indifferent son, a selfish and snobbish daughter and difficult love affairs.

2.4.2 Sports

A champion-Zinedine Zidane

"I remember, it was on 12 July 1998. We were enjoying our holidays at Palavas, on the Mediterranean coast. Usually, at 9pm, the streets used to be crowded. That evening they were deserted.

Suddenly, we heard people shouting "Zidane has scored a second goal. We have won!" After an hour, Zinedine Zidane lifted the world cup towards the spectators of the French stadium and the viewers of the entire world. France was the world champion... I have not forgotten these two extraordinary goals of Zidane. I am proud of Zidane".

Like this fan, the French are proud of Zidane because he has had an exemplary itinerary.

He was born in 1972 at Marseille in the popular locality of Castellane. He was the last little one in a family of Algerian origin. At age of 4 he began to play foot ball. Perhaps because he did not like school very much.

To leave or to stay?

During break-fast.

Romain: Camille, today we are on 13th. There are only two days.

Camille: Don’t they propose other posts?

Romain: No. Only Mexico.... And you know, I am lucky.

Camille: I have second thoughts. On one side, you may earn ,more, I will have more pass-time. On the other hand we shall have less friends.

Romain: Don’t think about it. Mexicans are more welcoming. You shall have as many friends as here, or even more.

Camille: Yes, but....

Romain: What? What worries you?

4.1.3 The Decision – 3 What to do about the green plant?

Camille and Romain prepare their departure.

- Camille: Can I disturb you?
Romain: Suppose I say no?
Camille: I shall be in bad mood.
Romain: So, what do you want me to do?
Camille: Help me to transport the ficus.
Romain: Does it not remain here?
Camille: You are mad! If we leave it here, it will die!
Romain: So, what are we going to do? Are we taking it to Mexico?
Camille: Don't be silly! I am taking it to Marie-Sophie.
Romain: If she puts the ficus in her studio, she can no more move.
Camille: She knows it.
Romain: Well! How are we going to transport it?
Camille: Obviously By car
Romain: Impossible. It will never enter a "Megane". What about a Scenic"?
Camille: Ah no! We are not going to start again!

Translation

5.1.1. Invitation for a TV Program - 1: Preparation.

In a small village in South of France, at the office of the association of Sud-Écologie, on Tuesday 10th May.

Bertrand: There was a call from the regional television. They are organising on the TGV railway station. They are inviting.
Are you going?

Louis : Who will be there in the debate?

Bertrand: Daveau will be there, it's sure, and perhaps Henri Fabre.

Louis: It won't be easy. Does no one want to go in my place?

Two days after, Louis is getting ready the televised debate.

Louis: "Our administrators mock at the environment"

Bertrand: Speak more slowly, more calmly. You must project her as a confident woman. Think of it.

Louis: It will be difficult in Daveau's presence.

Bertrand: Certainly not. Look at him with confidence. Reply to him politely and that will do.

5.1.2. Invitation for a TV Program – 2: Not ok!

Thursday, 12th may. Louis must go to the television studio.
